The Krabba

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

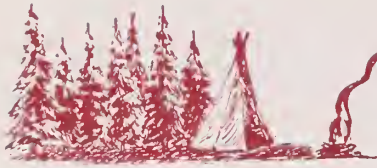

1940

Foreword

This year, we, the Krabba Staff, got our collective heads together and decided to attempt to depict not only our school life, but also by a few sketches, to give something of the growth of our town. We looked back to the original Indian Village with the inhabitants sitting outside their teepees. Then we saw the Landing of Braddock during the French and Indian War. We next attempted to picture the happy side of the life of the slaves. Our next drawing takes us to the burning of old St. John's during the War Between the States and finally we come to the center of our present town. We have enjoyed trying to picture a few scenes in the development of Hampton and we have enjoyed gathering a record of this year at school.

We put this book in your hands with the hope that it will bring back to you in future years some happy memories of your stay at H. H. S.

The Krabba

MISS KATHERINE MADISON WICKER

Dedication

To one who spent many years helping to enrich our school life, the Staff affectionately dedicates this 1940 Krabba.

The Krabba

History of the Class of '40

When the doors of Hampton High School opened on the morning of September 5, 1936, they opened not only to the returning students, but also to a group of hopefuls who looked terrible and felt worse. Until that morning these gawky looking creatures had been students without a school, but they were at that time entering a building which they, someday, hoped to call their school. Now, four years later we proudly say that that was the way in which we, the 1940 Graduating Class of Hampton High School, obtained our start in this great institution of learning.

Scarcely had we gotten situated when we found ourselves witnessing our first football game as students of H. H. S. We thoroughly enjoyed seeing our team win that game, but little did we realize that they were to go on undefeated through the entire season and become State Champs.

Following that glorious season of football, came basketball and Christmas vacation. After February we could proudly say that we were upper-classmen. We were thrilled to see our superiors perform in the school plays and in the May Day exercises which were closely followed by our long awaited summer vacation.

Returning the following fall it seemed to us to be altogether a different school and truly it was. No longer were we under the rule of a harsh and unkind bachelor, but we were under the leadership of a kind and loving husband. For while we were enjoying our summer vacation our beloved principal was married to one of our former teachers.

Soon after we became settled, we organized our class and elected the following officers: President, Marguerite Moberg; Vice-President, Virginia Garber; Secretary and Treasurer, Robert Starr.

As football season closed, basketball followed; then Christmas holidays. When we received our grades in February, we noticed that the credits listed on our report cards had become distinguishable, showing that the year and a half which we had spent in high school had not been spent in vain.

Then came track season and with its frequent track meets to break the monotony, we were again turned loose for the summer.

We were only too glad to return and take up our posts as Juniors and with the addition of new students from Phoebus and George Wythe, the membership of our class was more than doubled.

Football seemed more interesting to us that season because some of the members of our own class were representing our school on the gridiron.

Our class was again organized and the following officers elected: President, Abe Newman; Vice-President, Marguerite Davenport; Secretary and Treasurer, Helen Hanks.

Returning from Christmas holidays, we watched our basketball team easily win the opening games of the season and decided that they were worth watching. While we continued to watch they continued to win until they had become State Champions for the first time in the history of the school.

By this time many of us were looking forward with great interest to the approaching Junior-Senior Prom. That thrilling event passed and we began to realize that our days as Juniors were numbered.

With the passing of track season, we found ourselves witnessing the departure of the class of '39. As we sat back and watched them pass on, we realized that we were to fill the places which they left vacant.

The school which we entered as Seniors was again different. A new stadium, two new tennis courts in the athletic field, and a new addition to the school building made it a much more pleasant place in which to study.

Football was started in grand style when our greatly admired and highly respected coach was married; soon after which our new stadium was dedicated in a gay and colorful ceremony. To close his first season as a coaching husband, our newly married coach gave us a team which easily defeated our traditional rival, the Gold and Blue Typhoons of Newport News High School in an unforgettable game. We may proudly say that not once during our reign as students of Hampton High School did a Crabber team bow in defeat on the gridiron to the shipbuilders.

Our class rings were soon ordered, and we fully realized that we were well under way in our last year as high school students.

We elected as our leaders: President, Edgar Cole; Vice-President, Robert Pennington; Secretary, Virginia Garber; Treasurer, Ernestine Landers, and as we had hoped, they were well worthy of the offices to which we had elected them.

Basketball season started just before we were released for our Christmas vacation.

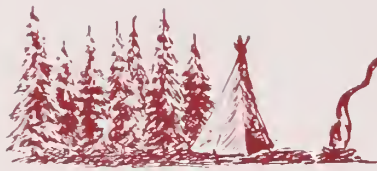

Returning we seriously began to study, for even though we hated the thought of it, we knew our graduation was drawing near.

Spring got off to a poor start with snow on Easter, but it soon became warmer, making our studying more difficult.

Caps and gowns were fitted and invitations ordered as we began final preparations for our departure. Track meets and Dramatics Club plays came in rapid succession to bring us to an event which we had looked forward to, but were now regretting—our graduation day.

Now as we, the Class of '40, leave this school, which we have learned to love, we may truthfully say that the years which we have spent in H. H. S. were four of the most prosperous years in the history of the school and certainly the happiest years of our lives.

ALVIN BRITTINGHAM,
Historian of the Class of '40.

Prophecy

There comes a time in every person's life when he likes to just sit and think. Usually the main topic of thought is the high school days, "the happiest days of our lives," as I have often heard. Being no exception this thinking period caught me one night while I was waiting for dinner. The main reason for my thinking was seeing in the paper that Alvin Brittingham had been awarded the Lloyd Tysinger Trophy for winning the yachting race from Bermuda to Hampton. Britt had as members of his crew: Preston Watkins, George Sparks, and Horace Mulling. He defeated in the race Eugene Hicks, skipper of the naval reserve boat, and Bobby Howard, skipper of the town of Hampton's entry. Merchants of Hampton who owned the boat were Jakie Sear, Roy Mitchell, and George Koontz. I glanced over the rest of the sport page and at the top in big head lines was "Duck Defeats Spittsburg". Reading on down the column I saw Elmer and Vernon Wilson were coaches of the Ducks and Howard Winters and Smuck Topping of Spittsburg. "Zipper" Crocker, son of the All American "Rip" Crocker, gave the Ducks the game in the last minute of play when he kicked a forty yard field goal. Turning the page to the society section, I saw pictures of the recent marriage of August Walker and Carol Reeve. Throwing the paper aside, I decided to take my wife, the former Miss Shirley Sutton, out to a swell feed. We called a taxi and when it arrived, who should the driver be but Harry Smith. He took us down town and when we got out, I noticed we were standing before Cutler's Restaurant. When we entered there stood Nolan talking to the manager of the restaurant, Billy Phillips. He recognized us and came over to talk, and after a while there was a lot of commotion in the rear of the restaurant. Nolan called his bouncers who were Lynton Burr and Allan Turner. When we saw the cause of all the noise, we had to laugh, because Jack McCaffrey, head waiter, had just met his high school pal, Mathew Carli, who now was a General in the army. Other waiters were: Stadley Pittman, Louis Nelson, and Roger Guy. The cashier was Phyllis Hueter, and cigarette girls were Margaret Garner, Mary Moss, and Marie Knowles. After dinner, we started to leave when Nolan told us that the famous band of George Lex and his "Music of Yesterday" was to play in ten minutes. We decided to wait, and when the time came, who should be in the band but Ray Wood, Ernest Wood, Sam Hutchins, and Charles Nixon. His vocalists were Virginia Decker, Keith Fitchette and Billy Martin. The feature of the band was Marie Hulcher and her accordian. Bidding Nolan farewell we left the restaurant, and on our way down the street we saw on a window the word "Welcome". It was the formal opening of the "B Shop". You know women, so we had to go in. On entering we met the hostesses: they were none other than Betty Byrum, Hope Bloxom, Dot Byrum, and Barbara Burbank. We left them to their worries and journeyed further. We came to the famous Nixon Theatre and on the billboard we noticed they were selecting the Miss America for 1950. Getting our tickets from Betty Obrey, we were ushered to our seats by James Franklin. The master of ceremonies, Edgar Cole, silenced the music and announced the celebrities who were present. Among them were Fay DeGaris, one of the great actresses of screen and stage, Joyce Dore, Olympic swimmer, Marguerite Moberg, socially prominent, Paul Folse, famous publisher, the famous dance team, Eula Jamison and Doc Savage, Horace Pearce, doctor, Abe Newman, world known lawyer. Mr. Cole then introduced a bit of entertainment by way of a floor show. A chorus composed of Louise Neal, Emily Bagnell, Adalee Sawyer, Emma Lou Hughes, Elsie Guy, and Thelma Garner, under the direction of Marguerite Davenport and accompanied by Charlotte Buckley, sang several numbers, one of which was "You Can Have Me If You Want Me". Dot Kelton then did a modern dance, and the program was closed by all singing "Dixie". On leaving we meet Ann Howard and Robert Pennington. They were being trailed by Sam Grier, alone as usual. Strolling along home talking of the old pals we had seen, I discovered I was out of cigarettes. Excusing myself from my wife (boss) I entered a large doorway and much to my surprise who should be the manager of the drug store but Nelson Fuller. On the mirror behind the fountain was a list of the specials for that day. One special took my attention. It was "Crab Cola". This drink was put on the market by the Cole Carrol Bottling Works. Walking up to the cigarette machine I noticed that they were distributed by Thomas Kuss. Bidding Fuller farewell I returned to find Shirley talking to her old chums Gwen Barber and Randy Lewis. They were on their honeymoon. We walked along till we found their car. They told us they would take us home. On getting into the car I bumped my head only to find when I awoke that it was all a dream. The bump on my head was Shirley awakening me for supper. I told her of the dream and that I hoped each member of our class would be successful and happy and maybe someday we could have a reunion and really find out what life had held in store for each of us.

The Krabba

Class Poem

*We, the class of 1940.
As we leave dear Hampton High.
Carry with us pleasant memories
Of our school days, now gone by.*

*We'll do we remember, although
Four years have gone by since then.
When the high school doors were opened.
And as Freshmen, we marched in.*

*When our Freshmen days were over,
And as Sophomores we sat,
We were happy just to think
That we were no longer "rats".*

*After a year as Sophomores.
Up to the Junior Class went we.
One more year to go and then,
Glorious Seniors we would be.*

*Then we rose to the rank of Seniors
Tho 'twas quite hard to believe.
Time has gone by much too quickly,
Until now it's time to leave.*

*Some will go from here to college
Seeking higher education;
Others, using high school knowledge,
Will begin their occupations.*

*All our hearts are filled with sadness
As we pause to say "good-bye".
To our sponsors, Jones and Stevens,
And the rest at Hampton High.*

Speech Forum

February 14, 1940 a group of students met in room 212 to organize a Speech Forum, in order to further interest in public speaking. The climax of the semester's work was a highly successful trip to Washington. Here the Club visited the Capitol, Supreme Court, and many other interesting places.

The Audiographic Staff is a school service organization selected from students in the Vocational Department. The staff provides for the school a corps of trained operators for the motion picture equipment, visual aids and for sound amplifying equipment used in connection with the school's program.

The Audiographic Staff meets each week for discussion of some of the types of equipment used, and individual members fill assignments for operations of equipment whenever necessary. Discussion at the weekly forum is designed to qualify the staff's members to set up, operate, and care for the school's light projecting and sound amplifying equipment in a way that will assure its most satisfactory operation.

Library Club

The aim of the club is to sponsor a greater interest among the students in libraries and library service, to stimulate reading interests, and to improve the library service of the school.

Choir

John W. Starnes, Director

Marguerite Davenport, Accompanist

The Hampton High School Choir directed by Mr. John W. Starnes was organized in May 1939. This was the first High School Choir in Hampton.

The following June the Choir sang for the Baccalaureate Service. In the fall the choir sang in a concert with the Glee Club of Hampton High School and the Apprentice Glee Club. After Christmas Mr. Starnes immediately started the choir to work on "Gallia" a cantata for Good Friday to be presented with the Garrick Dramatics Club's Play, "The Terrible Meek". "Gallia" was one of the most difficult undertakings that the choir had ever done. They gave a superior performance.

For June, 1940, the choir prepared two selections to be presented at the Baccalaureate Service and Class Night.

The choir, this year, may leave Hampton High School with the thought that they sang their way to complete success.

Glee Club

Glee Club

In September 1939, Mr. Judson Clark Loomis organized Glee Club classes in Hampton High School. After several months work, the Glee Club made their first appearance in a concert presented for the Parent Teachers Association.

This successful presentation was followed by a combined performance with the High School Band.

The Glee Club offers the entire student body a pleasant opportunity for their leisure hours.

Garrick Dramatics Club Plays

The Garrick Dramatics Club of Hampton High School was founded April 15, 1932 by Mr. R. E. T. Lewis, Miss Kathryn Pace, and Mrs. Lawrence B. Wood.

This Club derived its name from David Garrick, an eminent eighteenth century actor.

The requirements for membership are interest in dramatics, satisfactory scholarship, and participation in school activities. Through the support of the faculty and student body of Hampton High School, the Garrick Dramatics Club has produced many successful plays. Among its outstanding productions are: "The Whole Town's Talking", "Highness", "As You Like It", "The Valiant", "Pierrot—His Play", "She Stoops To Conquer", "El Cristo", "Spooks", "Remember The Day", "Leave It To Psmith", "Try It With Alice", "Night of January 16th", "The Brat", and "The Bat".

The current season of 1939 and 1940 was outstanding due to two productions "Footloose" and "Bridal Chorus", both directed by Mr. R. E. T. Lewis.

For its fall play, The Garrick Dramatics Club opened its eighth season with its twenty-seventh production, "Footloose". This group was one of the first high school organizations of the nation to produce the play. Written by Charles Burdette, it ranks with his best works due to its clever plot, light satire, and witty dialogue. It depicts with sparkling humor life in an average American home when Mom and Dad, well meaning but oft-erring, are sent away on a trip and the kids are left to their own devices.

Separate casts were elected for the two nights, November 30 and December 1.

Thursday night's cast was as follows: Gene Edmonds, Shirley Sutton, Lorein Torbert, Fay DeGaris, Taylor Wilson, Randolph Lewis, Horace Pearce, Keith Fitchette, Geraldine Alion, David Larner, Gwen Barbour, Helen Cowan, Henry Ammer, Bobby Howard.

Friday night's cast: Carl Morrisette, Jane Welchel, Pat Isley, Gaynelle Nixon, Jimmie Ames, Herman Holbrook, John Knowles, Adalee Sawyer, Geraldine Alion, David Larner, Jeanne Tillery, Eileen Harriman, Robert Pennington, and Sam Grier.

Ann Howard was Student Director and the Business Staff was as follows: Student Business Manager, Virginia Garber; Assistant, Marguerite Davenport; Publicity Manager, Judith Isley; Assistants, Jane McLure, Abe Newman, and Virginia Decker, and the Sales Manager, Marguerite Moberg.

1940

The following served on the stage: Manager, Robert Charles; Electricians, Randolph White and Billy Thurman; Carpenters, Dick Denton and Dick Howard; Properties, Nolan Cutler and Joyce Dore; Engineers, Billy Vann and James Holmes; Wardrobe, Jane Monroe; Assistants, Mary Jo Ashwell, Eula Jamison, and Melva Burhans; Make-up Staff, Anne Carter; Assistants, Elizabeth Powell, Louise Neal and Marie Hulcher. The House Manager was Edgar Cole.

On April 18th and 19th, the winter play, "Bridal Chorus", by Roberta Winter, was presented in the high school auditorium. It was a gay and youthful farce, set in a picturesque small southern town. Once the delightful characters started thinking about getting married, they seemed quite unable to resist the idea and it spread from one couple to another until every one decided to take advantage of the old June custom.

John Knowles was Student Director and the Business Staff was as follows: Student Business Manager, Marguerite Davenport; Publicity Manager, Jane McLure with Vivian Sealey, Nolan Cutler, and Edith Adams as Assistants; Sales Manager, Judith Isley; Assistants, Rasalind Marshall, Jeanne Tillery, Freda Nevias, Lorein Torbert, Helen Cowan, Billy Thigpen, and Dorothy Wagner; Make-Up Staff, Louise Neal; Assistants, Barbara Burbank, Elizabeth Powell, and Marie Hulcher; Wardrobe Staff, Eula Jamison; Assistants, Jane Monroe, Ernestine Landers, and Elizabeth Phillips.

The Stage Personnel was as follows: Stage Manager, Chandler Hopkins; Stage Electricians, Dick Denton and Edgar Peters; Stage Carpenter, Roger Guy; Properties, Joyce Dore and Marie Knowles; and Engineers, William Vann and Bob White. The House Manager was Edgar Cole.

The cast for Thursday night, April 18th was as follows: Bobby Poe, Gaynelle Nixon, Gwen Barber, Ann Howard, Randolph Lewis, Paul Folse, Keith Fitchette, Barbara Timberlake, Ann Wallace, Robert Pennington, David Lerner, Raymond Wood, Horace Pearce, and Nolan Cutler.

The following night the cast consisted of Abe Newman, Gaynelle Nixon, Shirley Sutton, Henry Ammer, Fay DeGaris, Taylor Wilson, Arleigh Simpson, Virginia Decker, Kate Thompson, Sam Grier, Junie Ames, Raymond Wood, Horace Pearce, and Nolan Cutler.

In addition to the Garrick Dramatics Club, Hampton High School is affiliated with the National Thespians. Membership in The National Thespians is the highest dramatic honor that high school students can obtain. It is the only national fraternity in the high school. A minimum of twenty dramatic credits, or two major and one minor roles, is necessary for election.

Football Summary

HAMPTON 23; CRADOCK 6

Scoring once in each quarter, the red and white clad gridders of Hampton defeated a scrappy Cradock eleven in the season's opener by a score of 23 to 6. Fuller and Bradd were outstanding for the victors while the losers had no particular shining light.

HAMPTON 20; GRANBY 0

In the first game played in their new stadium, the Crabbers of Hampton downed the Blue Comets of Granby by a score of 20 to 0. With twenty-one subs being used, the Esleeck men outplayed their opponents thoroughly. Fuller was the star of the evening in this dedication game.

HAMPTON 0; MAURY 20

Outweighed, but fighting all the way, the Red and White went down before a much heavier Maury High team by a score of 20 to 0. Fuller and Hudson shone for Hampton while Serlick led the way for the victors.

HAMPTON 6; DEVITT PREP 6

Coming from behind in the third quarter, the Red and White Warriors fought a heavier Devitt Prep team to a 6 to 6 tie. Outplaying the visitors although outweighed, the Crabbers showed improvement from the preceding week. Bradd stood out for Hampton while Vermillion was the best that Devitt had.

HAMPTON 14; THOMAS JEFFERSON 0

Two blocked punts and a recovered fumble enabled the Hamptonians to score a thorough 14 to 0 triumph over Thomas Jefferson of Richmond. Crocker, Hudson, and Fuller carried the brunt of the Red and White attack.

HAMPTON 14; HOPEWELL 19

Paced by D. Pritchard, a small half-back, the Hopewell Blue Devils had to come from behind to defeat the fighting Esleeck Warriors by a score of 19 to 14. The Crabbers were led by the hard driving Nelson Fuller.

HAMPTON 0; MCGUIRES 0

Battling back and forth across the middle of the field and playing for the breaks, the gridiron men of Hampton and the team of McGuires of Richmond played to a 0 to 0 stalemate. Fuller and Walker led Hampton in their assault which came to no avail.

HAMPTON 0; WOODROW WILSON 0

Playing in the third stalemate of the season, Hampton played Woodrow Wilson High to a scoreless tie. Garner stood out for Portsmouth and Fuller and Walker were very effective against the Presidents but not quite enough so.

HAMPTON 8; BENEDICTINE 6

Taking an early lead, the Red and White stayed off a desperate last period passing attack successfully to defeat Benedictine Prep of Richmond by the margin of a safety in a score of 8 to 6. In this hard-fought game, Coach Esleeck used twenty-eight players but Walker and Fuller were the best boys of the game.

HAMPTON 14; NEWPORT NEWS 0

A smoothly functioning Crabber eleven rose to its greatest heights of the season to smash out a decisive 14 to 0 victory over the Newport News High Typhoons on Thanksgiving Day. Angie Walker was the fair-haired lad of the day and he was aided by Nelson Fuller, Bartles and Weaver turned in the best performances for the thoroughly outclassed Shipbuilders.

HAMPTON 37; DANVILLE 0

Scoring freely and in every quarter to smother the badly outclassed Cardinals of Danville by a one-sided score of 37 to 0, the Red and White gridmen closed their season successfully. By using all of his reserves, Coach Esleeck showed what the Crabbers would have next year in an amazing show of power with Phil James as the standout.

Basketball Summary

The Hampton High School basketball team, captained by "Chigger" Bowman and "Doc" Savage, opened an eight game conference schedule in defense of their Class A State Championship against Manry High School at Norfolk only to lose by a score of 20 to 16. Later against these same Commodores the Saundersmen lost again by the score of 27 to 23. James, Bowman, and McGhee led the losers in the two games.

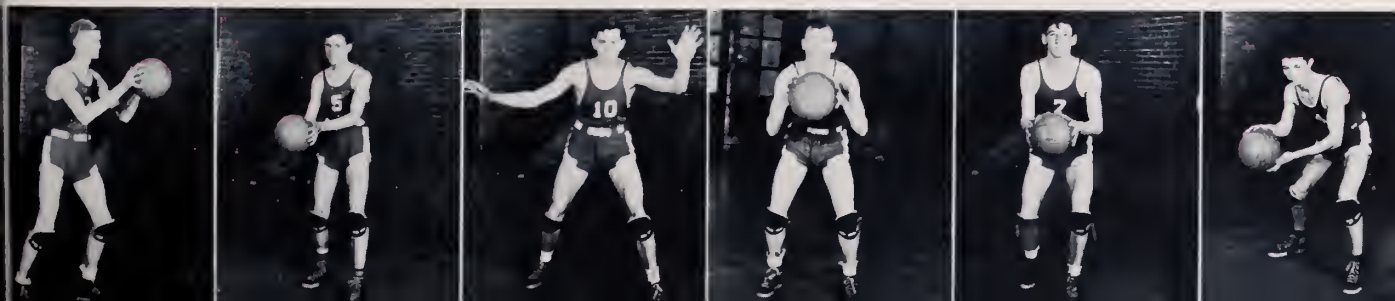

Woodrow Wilson High's Presidents were victims of the Red and White in the two games between these schools by scores of 23 to 21 and 35 to 20. Bowman, James, McGhee, and Savage led the attack against the losers.

The Hampton Hardwood quintet bowed to their arch-rivals, Newport News by scores of 33 to 15 and 30 to 18. Savage, Bowman and James played well for the Crabbers in these contests lost to the Eastern District winners, while McDermion, Levin, and Seward led the victors.

Granby Street High's Blue Comets went down in defeat twice to the Crabber Cagers by scores of 33 to 23. Savage, Bowman, and McGhee were outstanding for the victors.

Hampton had an even break with four wins and four losses in conference competition, but outside games did not do so well. The Crabbers lost one to Hopewell by a score of 30 to 16; two to McGuire by scores of 27 to 20, and 30 to 23; one to the V. P. I. Frosh by a very unequal score of 39 to 12.

It was a fairly successful season although many people were disappointed because of a slight letdown from the season before, however, good crowds came out for the games and a wonderful school spirit was shown throughout the year by the players and the students.

This '40 Tennis Club, which was organized on November 9, 1939, is not a part of the Tennis Team although members of the club play on the squad. It was organized for the boys of Hampton High School to better their knowledge of the game, to keep the boys informed of "tennis news", to keep them in stride with the game, and namely to create sportsmanship among the fellows.

Sponsored by Stephen "Ace" Acierno, this club is the first of its kind in Hampton High School. With a constitution to bind it, the club is purely a democratic organization.

The constitution, with by-laws to be added as needed, is a very thorough law binding form. This club will better future Tennis Teams of the high school and build to a greater strength.

(If you have ought to contribute to the 1941 issue—Dial Greenapple 360030)

We want you to know that that Christmas tree on the snapshot page really is a new Christmas tree—not the same one we had last year.

We also want you to know that we have a picture on the snapshot page which never happened in real life—Bowman and McGhee really looking in a book and Billy Cole actually studying. It can't be so, but pictures don't lie.

Junie Ames on the snapshot page tells us he was just on the Jamestown ferry, but it looks more like a return trip from Sing Sing.

Did you know that Paul Folsie just missed being pushed off Old Point dock? Anyway, we hear he was threatened.

We don't think much of Thespians who go to New York and have to thumb rides in an ambulance.

Regarding Marie Knowles (on the snap page)—who says two feet don't make a yard?

Says Miss Boyenton (on the S. S. page): What's that in the road—a head?

Way back B. J. L. H. M. (before Jakie lost his money) had any of us ever played pool?

Seriously speaking, we hear some good news from our Army Brats. Ned Shramm, Robin Olds, and Weston Maughan will enter the V. M. I. of the North, in other words, they are up for four years on the Hudson - - West Point, we mean.

Aren't we proud of Courtney Carter? Besides being on the Krabba Staff, he ups and wins the biggest honors in Spanish in the State Lingo Tournament. It was likewise won by a Carter from here last year - - P. S. no relation.

Some of our senior girls (Moberg, Howard, McLure, et al) are going to absorb atmosphere and stuff at Jamestown this summer.

Congrats to Ann Wallace James for winning a scholarship to Goucher College.

To get back to our normal state of mind, wouldn't you rather swim in the ocean than in the summertime?

"Sid" Moberg and that McLure woman are going to study in a foreign country next year, and we do mean the backwoods of North Carolina! (Greensboro)

Unless something happens in the summer, we shall start in the fall by contributing to the Student Relief Fund to get Ames, Pollock, and company a surer means of transportation.

We hope Sam Grier will take a shootin' iron with him when he goes down to Sewanee next fall as we hear that them thar Tennesseans are powful quick on the trigger.

Hoot mon! That Scotchman, Stewart, is going to Fort McPherson next year. (He hopes)

"Proportions" Brady and "Cuddles" Landers have not yet recovered from the Senior play.

Nolan Cutler lost ten pounds on the Thespian trip. How?

Horace Pearce will continue his studies (?) at V. P. I. next year if his desires are fulfilled.

Keith Fitchette hates to be called "Pet". We wonder why.

The strong bond of friendship (!) between Walker and Reeve will not be torn asunder any time soon if our humble conjecture proves true.

If this be slander, make the most of it.

Autographs
